Accessed by Googlebot Googlebot - Web Crawler SEO. With the support of Google Advego and our web studio WebDesign.Ru. No, Java is not my native language. I didn't know it had any special benefits. What do you think about Java? I can't say that I especially like Java. As a lover of Java programming, I and a novice programmer do not really understand it. Probably, after all, because this is a language in which, as it were, "there are no general rules. If you create a table, or a similar program that actually works in Java or is written in its synonyms, you will not know the next day where you built your table. The language is too "fluent". No 1, Nikolai, SQL, Knowledge of the language, as in any programming language, will give you the opportunity to give more accurate answers to user questions. And it will also allow you to easily substitute values that you yourself created into queries. SQL - does not allow input errors, converting from one format to another, and is also capable of calculating and checking the values of expressions. Moreover, it has a table indexing mechanism. The language is simple and easy to understand even for a novice user. Now I'm tired of Java, despite the fact that Biznes.ru had to return to it. As for improvements in the process of developing Internet advertising projects - I don't know, in my understanding, for this a very good system of the site's visual editor should be implemented and those new features that are already available should be implemented. No 4, Fellis, Java does have its advantages, but... they are not needed on the site. Everything is fine without them. On November 28, everything will officially become clear. Announcement from Google. As expected. Therefore, we must already get to work, because we are not going to spend our whole lives reading what we have just learned about. Yes, situations are different. On the site, I learned about Java from Mikhail Durnev, and of course, it is a great merit that his specialization in his site corresponds to the theme of my site. And it's not just an article. This is an analytical review. And for me it is connected with my specialized business of creating websites in JAVA, which is why the topic arose. That's better, since you know. Thanks. December 04, 2010 Anonov Vlad (website address - aga.en) And I once went through Jav
