That you have been driving with a suspended driver license, do not use it until you have resolved your case. He was cited and released. The driver is entitled to 24 hours notice of the hearing. Check your state's laws regarding court-imposed delays and reinstatement time limits. Frequent court delays add up to hundreds of hours of an individual's life that could have been spent more productively. The situation can be even worse if the driver's license was suspended under the driver's race or sex. Green!" case in which a man was sentenced to 30 days in jail for driving without a license. Florida Rules of Automobile Insurance Law, Chapter 626. Fire and Theft. If someone must be in your car for 24 hours, they should be removed as much as possible from the stress, say car windows, radio, and air conditioning. Since the United States is a very free country, the only excuse for not having your driver's license is that you can not drive. Page 4 – Your Automobile Insurance! The practice of returning unlicensed drivers to a traffic court system that is backed up with a 21-day delay and one-year renewal has been called into question by Florida's largest auto insurance underwriting company. The practice has been in place for about a decade, but more recently state law has been enacted to make it easier to suspend drivers who are involved in an accident, and restoring that driver's license, according to Michael Sanders, vice president of communications for State Farm Mutual Insurance Co. Many who fail to renew their driver's licenses are actually turned away from courtrooms and are not eligible to appear in traffic court until a year later, Sanders said. "The key is that it is no longer OK to haul people in to court without a driver's license." Under Florida law, a driver's license can be suspended in any of three ways: The driver is convicted of a DWI. A driver is required to receive a driver's license but has that license revoked by his or her court under either a law-enforcement administrative or judicial order. The driver's license is suspended for failure to pay a driver's license reinstatement fee.
