Tilepile

Tilepile is a free online tool for architects, artists, and builders that creates compelling tile floor and wall murals online. With Tilepile, you can design detailed mosaics, assemble them into a gorgeous tile wall mural, and share your finished art online. In addition to creating huge tile murals, Tilepile is a great tool for designers wanting to add a touch of creativity to their projects. The program is broken up into two sections, the palette and the mural. The palette works much like Photoshop or any other image editing program by allowing you to add any file type and customizing the palette to your needs. When you are finished with the palette, you can then take the tiles you have created and assemble them into a mosaic of your very own. Customize your project in multiple ways. You can add different themes or colors, watermark a tile, and much, much more. You can even add your own photographs and text as well. Finishing your project is easy. Tilepile Interface: Mosaics: You are able to easily find and choose the tiles you'd like to use by just dragging them into your palette. From there you can easily edit and organize them however you'd like. Watermarks: The program features a great watermark option that you can add to your tile wall mural. Themes: If you'd prefer to use a different theme or perhaps match your mosaics to a particular color scheme, you can easily do so. Themes include things like Hawaiian, vintage, western, and various other themes. Advanced Tile Wall System: This option allows you to change the size of your mosaic, add the same type of tile to multiple tiles at the same time, and even group tiles into a specific order. Camera: Drag and drop functionality allows you to add a photo to your tiles to make them feel more like a true mosaic. Brushes: You can easily add a brush to your tiles to show where a border should appear, or you can add a background just about anywhere. Font: You can easily add your own fonts to your tiles as well. Let's take a look at some of the projects created using Tilepile. Image Gallery: Creating a detailed mosaic on your website is as easy as selecting the right tiles. Tilepile is free to use and you can start creating your own projects immediately. You'll find that Tilepile makes tile mosaic creation easy and fun.
